FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Naperville, IL – National Accounts Representative Jen MacCarthy will host a roundtable discussion at the upcoming International Council of Shopping Center’s (ICSC) CenterBuild Conference. The conference, held annually, gives ICSC members involved in the design, development and construction of retail properties the opportunity to network and discover industry best practices.

The roundtable discussion hosted by MacCarthy will focus on cost-effective visual refreshes for existing facilities, and provide valuable information regarding best practices for maintaining and improving a company’s image and relevance – including the products and technologies that will help their property’s program succeed.

Ms. MacCarthy is currently responsible for business development along the east and west coasts, and specializes in providing custom solutions for facility and property management issues. The 2009 CenterBuild Conference is to be held at the J.W. Marriott in Scottsdale, Ariz.
