FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Naperville, IL – ISP Painting pledged their support of the Jewelers for Children (JFC) organization through a donation to the 2009 Facets of Hope Campaign. This campaign allows JFC to provide support for children whose lives have been impacted by life-threatening abuse, neglect or catastrophic illness through programs such as wish-granting, cancer research and preventing mothers from passing the HIV virus to their future children.

ISP's donation allowed guests to attend a charitable dinner as well as benefited organizations such as JFC's legacy charities: St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation, the Make-A-Wish Foundation of America, Autism Speaks, and the National CASA Association.

About Jewelers for Children:

JFC is a nonprofit organization created by the jewelry industry to raise money for charities that benefit children. As a result of the hard work and generosity of JFC's underwriters and other members of the jewelry industry, JFC has distributed over $30 million to its recipient charities since 1999.
